Valued client

Good day

SAVING TIME, SAVING MONEY (4)

All clients, please read further:

If you are not a client, you do not need to read further.

This is not compulsory reading for all clients.

Not only relevant to South African circumstances.

No afrikaans version of this e-mail available.

Referring back to our original client notice dated 15 February 2014, and understanding that technology has now made it easier than ever before for everybody to have access to electronic communication (e-mail, etc), we would now like to again request all clients to, if not done so already, start to make use of e-mail to receive electronic communication from our firm.

This is obviously a much cheaper, faster and efficient way of communication, resulting in cost savings for all

If you are currently receiving communication from us by mail, please elect to receive future communication by e-mail, supplying our firm with your e-mail address.

Please contact us, should you require any further advice or assistance.

Regards
